

Write for the Heights 2012

Writing Contest!

The Cottonwood Heights Arts Council, in cooperation with the Salt Lake County Library System, is sponsoring a writing contest for Salt Lake County residents aged 12 and up.

Entries must fit in one of these four categories: Fiction by an adult, Poetry by an adult, Fiction by youth (age 12-17), and Poetry by youth (age 12-17). Fiction must be less than 15,000 words long. ONLY ONE ENTRY PER PERSON, PER CATEGORY MAY BE SUBMITTED. E-mail entries to amy.charts@gmail.com, or submit paper copy entries at your local county library. Please include author initials in the upper right hand corner of each page of your entry if submitting a paper copy.

Sign the release agreement—this allows the city of Cottonwood Heights to publish your work on their website, should you win the contest. Attach this form to the submission, whether in paper form, or in e-mail. Submissions without a signed release form will not be published.

Please include the following information (or this filled-out form) with your entry:

Name: _____ Penname: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ ST: _____ Zip: _____ Phone: _____

e-mail address _____ Age: _____

Category of submission _____

Submission title: _____

Entries must be submitted by September 1, 6:00 P.M. if submitting at a county library. For e-mail submissions, the deadline is September 1, 11:59 P.M. No late submissions will be accepted. A panel of librarians, educators, and local writers will judge entries.

There will be one grand-prize winner and two honorable mentions per category. Winning entries will be announced on October 20, 2012 at an event at Whitmore Library. With a signed Release Agreement, winners' work will be published online. If you do not sign the Release form, your work will not be published online. Additional publication rights will remain with the author.
